

PRESS RELEASE

PRESENTATION OF THE WORLD'S 101 BEST STEAK RESTAURANTS RANKING 2023

London, 24 March 2023

For the fourth year in a row, London based Upper Cut Media House presents the World's 101 Best Steak Restaurants ranking initiated by Ekkehard Knobelspies in 2019.

The winner of this year's ranking is the restaurant Parrilla Don Julio from Buenos Aires, which has displaced the 2022 winner, the restaurant Hawksmoor from London, in second place. In 3rd place in this year's ranking is the restaurant American Cut Tribeca from New York.

The Don Julio restaurant in Buenos Aires, run by Pablo Rivero and Executive Chef Guido Tassi, works exclusively with meat of Argentinean origin from the Aberdeen Angus and Hereford breeds from its own sustainable breeding programme. Meat from these excellent classic old meat breeds, short transport routes, respectful rearing in extensive farming, consistent standards and natural grass feeding make this beef from Argentina in our view one of the best products currently available and Parrilla Don Julio the world's best steak restaurant 2023.

No. 1 – Parrilla Don Julio, Buenos Aires

No. 2 – Hawksmoor, London

No. 3 – American Cut Tribeca, New York

The meat ambassadors and testers note that the quality of the tested restaurants is constantly developing and improving, not only in terms of meat quality but also in the areas of product knowledge, preparation methods, service, interior design. Furthermore, it can be seen that especially the European steak restaurants with their focus on old local breeds, new maturing techniques and from "nose to tail eating" are increasingly asserting themselves against the former supremacy of the established classic steak restaurants in the USA and convince with a more individual offer.

The other restaurants voted into this year's top 10 are:

- No. 5 - Bodega El Capricho, Spain
- No. 6 - FX Buckley, Ireland
- No. 7 - I due Cippi, Italy
