

PRESS RELEASE

PRESENTATION OF THE WORLD'S 101 BEST STEAK RESTAURANTS RANKING 2022

London, 11.04.2022

For the third year in a row after 2020 and 2021, the London-based Upper Cut Media House presents the ranking of the World's 101 Best Steak Restaurants.

The evaluation and publication of the world's 101 leading steak restaurants again presented a great challenge this year due to the still existing Covid pandemic as well as Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

The winner of this year's ranking is London's Hawksmoor restaurant, which edged out the 2020 and 2021 winner, Sydney's Firedoor restaurant, for third place.

The Hawksmoor restaurant, which is headquartered in London and recently opened a new branch in New York, works exclusively with British meat from the Short Horn, Long Horn, Angus, Devon White, Dexters, Highlands and Belted Galloways breeds from its own breeding programme. Meat from these excellent old meat breeds, very short transport routes, respectful rearing in extensive farming, consistent standards and natural grass feeding make this meat from England, in our view, the best meat in the world at the moment.

Prominent restaurants such as the Asador Etxebarri in Spain, which was still listed at number 4 in our 2021 ranking, is no longer included in our current ranking. The reason for this decision is not the quality of meat offered but rather an unprofessional and user-unfriendly reservation system, which makes it almost impossible for interested guests to make a reliable reservation.

Our Special Awards this year went to the restaurants Beef in Kiev (We Stand United Award) and to the chef Umberto Crisci (Young Gun Ambition Award) of the restaurant Casa de Fuego by Mauro Colagreco in Menton.

The leading steak restaurants in the UK & Ireland are as follows:

No. 1 & Winner - Hawskmoor, London
No. 18 - F.X. Buckley, Dublin
No. 22 - BEAST, London
No. 25 - Goodman, London
No. 35 - Porter & Rye, Glasgow
No. 42 - Flat Iron, London
No. 47 - Guinea Grill, London
No. 49 - Zelman Meats, London
No. 53 - Rowley's, London
No. 62 - Blacklock, London
No. 75 - Marco Pierre White, Dublin
No. 82 - The Coal Shed, London

The Upper Cut Media House Ltd. with headquarters in London and representatives in Munich, Vienna, Zurich and New York has taken on the task of compiling and medially promoting the list of the 101 best steak restaurants in the world.

The editors and the independent internationally active steak ambassadors of the "World's 101 Best Steak Restaurants" have many years of international meat expertise. Every year, between 500 and 700 restaurants are visited and evaluated, from which the 101 best restaurants are included in the ranking.

Not least because of current developments and trends in the field of food and drink, the ranking is intended to provide an adequate stage for the honest and high-quality product of meat.

The official online presentation of the 2022 ranking will take place on 11 April 2022 at 12.00 noon London time GMT. The ranking can be found at www.worldbeststeaks.com.
